SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week allows students to show their Warrior spirit in funny and interesting ways. This year Warriors could participate in Twin Day, Tacky Day, 60's and 70's Day, and Blue and Black Day. From hair painting to the clothing style, the Warrior pride really shined through. The final event of Spirit Week was the Homecoming Pep Rally. The Cheerleaders sponsored a battle of the classes in which representatives from each class competed to see who had the most spirit.

Ryan, James, Jeffery, and J.J. show off the latest styles.

SPRING FLING

Each year Southeast students look forward to the last Friday before Spring Break to our annual Spring Fling. As usual there was a threat of rain but the day quickly cleared up and was beautiful. Clubs planned many activities during the day to keep students busy. The Science Club sponsored a water balloon toss, Civitan had it's marriage booth, and Frater Sodalis held its always popular Slam Dunk/3-point/Free Throw Contest. The day was hectic but students still found time just to relax and enjoy the day with their friends.

SOFTBALL

The Southeast Lady Warriors softball team made a strong comeback this year. Coach Mathis was joined by a new assistant, Coach Martin. This was the first year the Warriors had an assistant coach and it proved to be a positive addition.

The team placed 2nd in the Northeast Invitational Tournament with 2 wins and 2 losses. Beating Central and Southwest early in the tournament, the girls played hard throughout the day.

Coach Mathis and Coach Martin helped lead the Warriors to a 9-9 season. The strong coaching staff added to the talent of the younger girls are sure to build a future for the Lady Warriors. Although this was Coach Mathis' last year coaching, his 7 devoted years were very much appreciated. Coach Martin will surely lead the Lady Warriors into a winning future.

FOOTBALL

Southeast's football season got off to a great start with a win against Dooly County but soon became gloomy finishing the season with 2 wins and 8 losses. Much of the disappointing season was due to injuries of key starting players including the quarterback and kicker. Warrior spirits stayed high and the boys showed a lot of heart as they stuck through the season. This year's coaching staff included Jimmy Hammond, John Griffin, Eddie Ashley, Kelvin Oliver, and Bobby Gordon. From long hours of organizing plays to three hour practices after school, the coaches dedicated a lot of their time and effort to the team. Their hard work paid off this year and for future Southeast teams.

The 1996 Southeast Soccer Team was led by an impressive group of Seniors: James Bish, Calvin Seabrooks, Fernando Dupree, and David Mathews. Along with some talented underclassmen, this group of young men provided a great challenge to their opponents. SENIOR WEEK

This year's Senior Week was May 13-17th. The week was kicked off by Senior Shirt Day and a Memory Book Signing Party during 1st period. On Tuesday morning the Seniors ate breakfast in the lunchroom. SENIOR PLAY

As another exciting day at Eisenhower unfolds, Brooke Benedict (Amy Parham) decides to change her look completely. She gets noticed and discovers being with the "in" crowd is fun but dangerous. She hangs out with the popular kids and dates the most popular guy, Hunter (Ryan Watson). But, she's also hurting her friend Jen (Mandy Barber). Hunter, a selfish rascal, demands that Brooke gives his the one thing he wants. Scott (Anson McMahon) comes to Brooke's defense and, in the struggle, Hunter gets suspended by Coach Healy (Johnathan Walker).

Meanwhile, Libby (Michelle Weaver) and Karl (Brian Bryson) can't express how they feel about each other. Buzzard (Jody Long), up to his old tricks, orders pizza delivered to Mrs. Cozlow's (Yvonne Campbell) class. He spends countless hours with Len (Patrick Taylor) in detention. Even Howie (Rick Dry) gets detention thanks to the bully Travis (Brian Craig) and is best-friend Alex (Tim Avera). As the week ends, Pat (Denni Stokes) tells Brooke to get Scott to the dance; Hunter and his gang want to beat him up. The misfits of detention come to the rescue. Brooke finds she doesn't like being "in" and leaves the dance with Scott, and Hunter is left alone with his only friends, pills.

With the help of Director John T. Jones, Evie Crumbliss, Quint Bush, and many others back stage "Makin It" was a great success!

WORLD RELIGIONS

From Christianity to Hinduism —From reenacting books of the Bible (pictured below Ruth, Jonah, and Esther) to visiting Temple Beth Israel and St. Josephs. In our World Religions class we've learned it all. This was something new for us all even Ms. Crumbliss — and it proved to be a great success!
